

OUR PARIS OFFICE WELCOMES NEW PARTNERS AND A FRENCH NOTARIAL PRACTICE

Bonnard Lawson's Paris office is pleased to welcome four new partners, including three French notaries. The Paris Office now operates as Bonnard Lawson Avocats Notaires. Bonnard Lawson Avocats Notaires introduces an innovative offer to the international legal market, combining tax and legal advisory services with the drafting of French notarial deeds, a true continuation of the Paris firm's historic expertise in global wealth and tax planning. By fully integrating the practice of its three Paris-based notaries, Bonnard Lawson Paris broadens its scope of services and offers unparalleled French notarial support to its private clients and foreign offices. This includes real estate transactions, donations, inheritances, marriages settlements, and more, whether in the context of investments in France, expatriation, impatriation, or family wealth structuring and estate and tax planning in a national or international context. As the legal and tax advisory market evolves, our Firm is committed to anticipating our clients' needs by creating a model that combines the strength of an international law firm and the security of a leading French notarial practice. To find out more, discover our new partners in the "Team" section of our website.